

MOUNTAINEER RENDEZVOUS

September 8-10, 2023

Bradley Scout Reservation

Booshway, Tom Wangeman

Our rendezvous is being held in celebration of the original Rocky Mountain rendezvous that were attended by Mountain Men, Native Americans, and Traders during the 1800's. At the rendezvous, the Mountaineers sold and traded their furs and re-supplied before going back into the wilderness for the next trapping season.

Celebration, revelry, competition, and storytelling were all part of the rendezvous. We invite your Scouts BSA Troops to join us at the rendezvous and participate in the following activities:

This event will be an
INTRODUCTION TO MOUNTAINEERING

BLACK POWDER RIFLE
TAMAHAWK THROW
FLINT/STEEL
LOG CABIN BUILDING

Flint AND STEEL FIRE START
ARCHERY
BALL CASTING
CIVIL WAR REENACTMENT

Meals:

Troops will provide their own meals.

What to bring:

Personal camping gear, Troop camping gear. Food, water, sunscreen, bug repellent, hat, gloves (for service project). The temperature is usually cooler this time of year, average mid 60's (perfect!) plan accordingly for clothing

Depending upon the climate, it is possible you will not be able to have campfire.

You are obligated to God and this great Earth to leave a clean camp and cold fire.

Have a safe trip home!
